Conway Man Sentenced to 100 Months for Forging Prescriptions

Columbia, South Carolina---- United States Attorney Bill Nettles stated today that Kevin Dewayne Larrimore, age 39, of Conway, South Carolina, was sentenced in federal court in Florence, South Carolina, for conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute and distributing Oxycodone, a violation of 21 U.S.C. § 846. United States District Judge R. Bryan Harwell of Florence sentenced Larrimore to 100 months imprisonment based on the diversion of 1500 Oxycodone pills.

Evidence presented at the guilty plea hearing established that Larrimore conspired to forge doctors' names on prescriptions in order to obtain Oxycodone in Conway, SC. Larrimore obtained drugs primarily to feed his drug addiction but was also selling the Oxycodone pills between January and April of 2010.

The case was investigated by agents of the Drug Enforcement Administration - Diversion Division. Assistant United States Attorney William E. Day, II of the Florence office handled the case.
